

Steel Union Asks 'Conspiracy' Investigation

Follows 'Pooling' Report

NEW YORK — (UPI) — United Steelworkers of America today asked the Justice Department to investigate an alleged conspiracy on the part of the steel industry to pool its profits in the event of a strike against one or more companies.

At the same time the union asked the National Labor Relations Board to investigate the possibility that the companies will engage in a lockout in the event of a strike affecting only part of the industry.

R. CONRAD COOPER, chief negotiator for the industry, indicated Wednesday that the industry was considering both proposals in the event the union adopted a "divide and conquer" strike policy.

The requests for investigations of these possible moves were made in separate letters to Attorney General William P. Rogers and to Jerome D. Fenton, general counsel of the NLRB.

The letters were signed by Arthur J. Goldberg, general counsel of the union.

GOLDBERG EMPHASIZED at a press conference that these letters were not to be construed as an indication the union had decided upon a strike policy which would close down only part of the industry.

He said no strike plan had been made.

He said the letters were sent only to alert the Justice Department and the NLRB to possible violations of federal law by the steel industry.

COMMENTING ON the plan to pool profits, Goldberg said that plan was in violation of the anti-trust laws because it would amount to collusion among the companies to allocate their markets.

He said if the companies already had seriously discussed such a plan, they are guilty of engaging in a conspiracy to violate the antitrust laws.

GOLDBERG PRESIDED at the press conference in the absence of USW President David J. McDonald who was lunching with former President Harry S. Truman.

Goldberg, noting that Cooper implied Wednesday the industry may close down all plants if any one is hit by a strike, said this would amount to a "legal lock-out."

JOHN MURRAY, speaking to reporters before entering a negotiating session with Jones and Laughlin Steel Co., cautioned the public and industry not to underestimate the solidarity of the steel workers or their determination to win a better contract.

"We will get what we want eventually," Murray said, "and we will strike if that is necessary to enforce our contract demands."

Murray, a cousin of the late Phil Murray who organized the steel workers in the late 1930s, is director of the union's District 16 in Pittsburgh.

Board Plans Wage Hikes Of 8 Per Cent

District Classified Employees to Get Raise After Survey

Pay raises averaging almost eight per cent may soon be ordered for the 116 classified employees of the Palm Springs Unified School District Board of Education members indicated last night.

Board members viewed with favor a state personnel board report recommending an average increase of 4.8 per cent for most of the district's classified employees.

THEY ALSO INDICATED approval of proposals to tag on a three per cent cost-of-living increment and certain "fringe benefits" for the employees.

The state report affects school district custodians, clerks, secretaries, maintenance men and their supervisors, bus drivers and similar classifications.

In most cases, the state report recommends upgrading of classified positions, resulting in an average pay boost of 4.8 per cent.

BOARD MEMBERS, meeting in an informal session to study the plan, indicated that they may favor administration proposals to add on a general three per cent increase, plus provisions to pay for employee uniforms.

Since last night's session was "informal" in nature, board members were unable to take action. But they indicated that the classified pay plan will probably be listed for action at the next regular Board of Education meeting.

White House Sad At Departure Of Sir Winston

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A historic era at the White House ends today. Sir Winston Churchill leaves. No one associated closely with the 84-year-old former British prime minister these last few days expected him to return. And from President Eisenhower down to the cooks and butlers, there was genuine sadness over his leaving.

Sir Winston has been the President's house guest since Monday and today he moves to the British Embassy for one night before traveling home to his beloved Great Britain with a brief stop-over in New York.

7 Directors Named by Hotel Group

New Officers To Be Elected Next Tuesday

Seven persons, two women and five men, last night were elected to two year terms to the board of directors of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association.

At a meeting held at the Ranch Club, the association membership elected the following persons:

GRACE MUELLER, Green Gables; Arthur Greenfield, Avalon Hotel; Evelyn McKay, The Starliner; Ollie Humphrey, Harlow Haven; Ed Jones, Alcia Villa; William F. Zeck, Jr., Sunny Vista; and Stanley Doyle.

Directors who have been held over for another year are: Jessie Manifold, Amarillo Bungalows; Jerry Bunker, The Monterey; Lynn Jennings, Continental; Harold Kaster, Tangelo; John Miller, Monte Vista; Harry Paisley, Orchid Inn; Joel Stone, Place in the Sun; and Sig Ehrens, Crestview.

THE BOARD OF directors will meet at 2 p.m., Tuesday, at the Chamber of Commerce offices to elect the officers of the organization.

Alex Crawford, current president, presided over the meeting last night, and speakers included Saul Ruskin, attorney for the association, who asked for increased interest in the organization by its members; City Manager Dan Wagner, who reported that there was "nowhere else I'd rather live," and Cliff Brown, publicity head of the Chamber of Commerce, who called the membership's attention to the articles that are running in the current Cosmopolitan and Sports Illustrated.

One Killed, More Trapped, Injured As Roof Drops

JERICHO, N. Y. — (UPI) — At least one man was killed and several others trapped and injured today when the roof of a factory building under construction collapsed on workmen.

Nassau County police said one man was found dead and others were trapped in the rubble.

A police spokesman said there was a possibility a second man also had died.

The spokesman said between 15 and 17 additional men were known to have been trapped and injured.

THREE WOMEN narrowly missed being seriously injured last night when this car, driven by Jean Walker, 49, resident of Clara Bee Lodge, smashed through the wall of the building into a kitchen area. A resident of the lodge, Piney McKay, was reading and drinking a cup of tea in a chair near the lamp behind Officer William Manger (left in photo), and two other women, Edith Chettle and Madge Wray, were at the card table to the right. Zachary Pitts, owner of the lodge, inspected the scene and estimated that damage to the building exceeds $1,000. (Desert Sun Photo)

Bids Opened For Thousand Palms Lighting

THOUSAND PALMS — A low bid of $3,620 by the Drury Electric Company of San Bernardino has been received for the installation of flashing beacons and highway lighting at Ramon Road and Highway 60-70-99 here.

Clyde V. Kane, district engineer for the San Bernardino office of the State Division of Highways, said that the Drury bid, along with two other bids, has been taken into consideration by the department.

Installation and maintenance cost are being shared equally by Riverside County and the State of California, Kane pointed out.

Highway lighting will be photoelectric controlled, shutting off when sufficient light exists on the roadway. Beacons will operate continuously, Kane said. They will be red on Ramon Road, yellow on the highway artery.

THREE NARROWLY ESCAPE INJURY

Jean Walker, 49-year-old Palm Springs waitress, was taken into custody last night by local police after her automobile smashed some three-quarters of the way through a kitchen at the Clara Bee Lodge. Mrs. Walker resides in apartment 7 at the lodge.

THREE WOMEN, all residents at Clara Bee Lodge, narrowly escaped serious injury as they sat reading or playing cards when the car plowed through the wall of the building.

Piney McKay sat in a chair reading a book and drinking a cup of tea when the car, plus flying glass and wood splinters, tore into the room blocking her escape from the corner. Two other women, Edith Chettle and Madge Wray sat across the room playing cards, and the front of the car missed them by a scant three feet.

POLICE SGT. T. M. Aitken said that Mrs. Walker was being followed by a private patrol officer,

Italian Plane Released by Iraqi Officials

ROME (UPI) — Iraqi authorities today released an Alitalia airliner forced down by jet fighters in Baghdad Wednesday.

A spokesman for the airline said the DC6B, with 21 passengers aboard, was allowed to take off early today for Beirut. It will continue from there to Athens and Rome.

"ALL PASSENGERS left with the plane," the spokesman said. He added that the nationalities of the passengers were not known, but it was reliably reported four of them were Americans.

The plane was in Baghdad for 27 hours. The spokesman said the airline did not know the reason the jets forced the plane to land in Baghdad.

Officials of Alitalia Airlines said Italian diplomats have taken up the case with Iraqi authorities, but so far they have been unable to obtain an explanation of the government's reasons for forcing the plane down.

THE LINE'S BAGHDAD representative reported that local authorities ordered the plane to land "because of a ban on flights over Iraqi territory."

All Business Windows 'Cleaned Out'

Four Suspects Arrested; Police Patrol Section

JELICO, Tenn. (UPI) — Dynamite explosions wrecked two coal tippleries early today in this strike-tense community on the Kentucky state line and police arrested four men seen running from the scene of the blasts.

The two explosions, about 15 minutes apart, "cleaned out" the windows in the town's three-block business section. Both the coal tippleries, located in the railroad yards a few hundred yards from the city hall, were destroyed.

SHERIFF ROSE Kitts estimated the total damage at about $120,000. A deputy sheriff said he counted 42 shattered windows in the business district, and police patrolled the area to prevent looting.

Police said tipsters told them that two cars, one with West Virginia license plates and the other with a Kentucky tag, were seen leaving the city and crossing into Kentucky shortly after the explosions went off about 1 a.m. The four men arrested denied any part in the blasts.

INVESTIGATORS FOR the National Labor Relations Board moved into this area Wednesday after earlier reports of violence in the strike-torn coal fields of East Tennessee.

A strike by the United Mine Workers Union began in Harlan County, Ky., last March 9 and spread to other Southeast Kentucky counties as UMW contracts expired. There was frequent gunplay in Kentucky, and at least two men have been killed.

GOV. A. B. CHANDLER sent National Guard troops into three Kentucky counties April 24 and recalled them last Monday.

Jellico, with 2,600 population, is in the center of the southeast Kentucky and East Tennessee coal fields.

The UMW is seeking a new contract calling for a $2 daily pay raise to $24.25.

Education Board Discussion

Disciplinary Action May Follow Teacher 'Walk Off'

Board of Education members last night indicated that disciplinary action may be leveled against a teaching consultant who reportedly walked off her job Friday.

Schools Superintendent Dwight Twist said that the case of Miss Lee Ewalt, who was hired to initiate the school district's "more capable learner program," may be referred to the state for action under the Education Code of California.

IF MISS EWALT is charged with failure to "carry out the terms of her contract," which required her to remain on duty through the end of the current semester, she faces possible loss of her California teaching certificate for one year.

Board members met last night in a special, but informal, personnel session to view an eight-page report "on the events leading to the personnel problems resulting from the employment of Miss Lee Ewalt."

THE REPORT, released to the public and press last night, concerns Miss Ewalt's activities since she started work as a "probationary teacher" last fall. The report is available to the public.

Formerly associated with the city schools as a teacher of "gifted students," Miss Ewalt was hired to launch this district's program for more capable learners at an annual salary of $8,000.

She submitted her resignation to the board on Feb. 21. It was to take effect June 15.

SUBSEQUENTLY, MISS EWALT asked for a board audience to discuss "misunderstandings and misinterpretations concerning my position" with the school district.

Her request was denied by the board which "decided that most of the facts had been presented (by Miss Ewalt) to one or more members of the board and they, in turn, had reported to the board as a whole," Dr. Twist later explained to Miss Ewalt.

Therefore, the board felt "not much, if any, additional information need be presented."

Monday morning, Dr. Twist found a handwritten note on his desk notifying him of Miss Ewalt's immediate resignation. She failed to show up for classes this week and has not been available for comment.

Library Building Board Increased

PALM DESERT — Five new committee members were today named to spearhead the fund drive for a community library building here.

Finance committee chairman Ben Arnold said that Eugene C. Roberts, Rev. Warren McLain, Ed Welcome, B. W. Baker and Phil Franklin were selected to help push the drive.

THE APPOINTMENTS were announced at the monthly meeting here of the community Library Association.

Association President Hal Kapp also reported that the building fund now holds $6,000.

THE LIBRARY will be built on a 133-by-167-foot site, located at Shadow Mountain Drive and Portola Avenue, which was donated to the association.

Kapp said public meetings next fall would determine the means of financing the $40,000 building.

BOY'S CLUB FUTURE TOLD IF UNITED FUND DRIVE FAILS

A total of nearly 450 young Palm Springs boys today faced a slash of approximately 50 per cent in activities at the community's Boys Club.

Val Blatz, president of the facility, and Ray Lockwood, director at the club, today pointedly stressed the fact that continued failure by the community to support the Village United Fund campaign will result in serious impairment of all of the community's charities — including the Boys Club.

"If no more money is raised than 50 per cent of our quota from the United Fund," declared Lockwood, "and if we comply with the regulations of the Community Chest that we solicit no

Blatz said that the lack of support for the United Fund was even more incongruous when viewed in the light of the campaign that created the Boys Club.

"Citizens of Palm Springs saw fit to raise $80,000 to establish the Boys Club," he said, "but are now lagging in providing the necessary funds to keep the facility open for more than half a year."

Nixon, Hagerty Avoid Brush With Pickets at TV Awards

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A picket line and Vice President Richard M. Nixon failed to make contact Wednesday night—probably to the distinct relief of both.

The occasion was a meeting of the Washington chapter of the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, held in connection with the national TV Emmy award ceremony.

TWO PICKETS were stationed at each of the two doors of the Mayflower Hotel where the affair was held. They represented the National Association of Broadcasting and Engineering Technicians, who are involved in a contract interpretation dispute with the National Broadcasting Company.

The pickets arrived about 6 p.m. Nixon had checked into a room at the hotel one hour and 30 minutes earlier. The pickets left at arts and crafts classes, photography instruction and darkroom techniques, an extensive library, table pool and ping pong, a comprehensive outdoor athletic schedule, and motion pictures every other Friday night. The club is also utilizing its kitchen in a program to teach youngsters how to cook.

The activities are synchronized to "promote the health and social, educational, vocational and character development in the young men of the community," Lockwood said.

The Boys Club operates on a six-day schedule, open from 3 - 5 and 6:30-9 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from noon until 4 p.m., Saturday.

11:30 p.m. Nixon departed at midnight.

PRESIDENTIAL NEWS Secretary James C. Hagerty also arrived early at the hotel preparatory to presenting awards, and did not meet up with the pickets.

It was learned Nixon had told the sponsors he would not attend if he had to cross the picket lines.

Two Democrats scheduled to present awards cancelled out altogether. House Speaker Sam Rayburn (Tex.) didn't show, and instead attended a White House stag dinner for Sir Winston Churchill.

SEN. MIKE MANSFIELD (D-Mont.) notified the sponsors that he would not be able to attend after he was informed of the picket lines.

The pickets said the only dignitary they saw was Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.). They said Humphrey explained to them that he was attending a Minnesota bankers' dinner at the hotel, not the television affairs.

Bank of America Staff Marks 'Founder's Day'

Bank of America staff members in Palm Springs honored the memory of the late A. P. Giannini yesterday in a brief Founder's Day ceremony marking the 83rd anniversary of his birth.

Introduced by F. G. Ingram, vice president and manager of the Palm Springs branch, President S. Clark Beise spoke by recording to the local staff and 24,000 Bank-Americans in branches throughout the world.

In his message, Beise recalled Giannini's vision in founding and building the bank. He asked staff members to join him in rededicating themselves to maintaining the simple human values which inspired Giannini's banking concepts.

Giannini was born in San Jose on May 6, 1870, and died June 3, 1949. He founded Bank of America in 1904.

Fred Astaire Sweeps Nine Emmy Awards

HOLLYWOOD — (UPI) — Fred Astaire, belting the "old dad" nickname he hung on himself, let his famous dancing feet do the celebrating Wednesday night after his stunning sweep of nine television "Emmy" awards.

"A great night for old dad," cracked the skinny Astaire when he accepted one of the awards given him by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. He will be 60 Sunday.

AND THEN FRED showed the young fellows how to celebrate by joining a crowd of television and movie personalities at the Palladium and dancing with Barrie Chase, his co-star on the "Evening with Fred Astaire" show that earned him the awards, and with blonde beauty Kim Novak.

Astaire, whose sophisticated dances brought him stardom on Broadway and motion pictures, won each award for which he had been nominated, including best actor of 1958 in a single performance.

A TOTAL OF ABOUT 60 pickets, many dressed in formal attire, paraded in front of the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood and at the Ziegfeld Theater in New York and the Mayflower Hotel in Washington during the ceremonies. Sections of the hour-and-a-half nationally televised program were beamed from all three spots.

The biggest winner next to Astaire was the Irish drama "Little Moon of Alban" which took four awards, including the best actress in a single performance award for its star, Julie Harris.

THERE WERE a number of two-Emmy winning shows, including Perry Mason, Peter Gunn, Dinah Shore and Jack Benny.

The only Westerns garnering awards were Maverick, named the best out-burner, and Gunsmoke, in which Dennis (Chester) Weaver won an Emmy as best supporting actor in a series.

Among the networks, NBC nearly swept the field by collecting 27 Emmys, CBS won 12 and ABC one.

Playhouse 90, expected to be a big winner, won only one award—the best dramatic series of one hour or longer.

IN THE NEWS category, the team of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley on NBC was chosen the best news reporting program; Face of Red China, CBS, the best special news program; Ed Murrow, CBS, best news commentator; and Cuban Revolution, CBS, the best on-the-spot news coverage.

Other awards included: Loretta Young (best actress, dramatic series), Jane Wyatt (best actress, comedy series), Barbara Hale (best supporting actress, dramatic series), Ann B. Davis (best supporting actress, comedy series), and Tom Poston (best supporting actor, comedy series).

Perry Como won the best actor of a musical show award and Raymond Burr the award for the best actor of a dramatic series. Omnibus, NBC, was named the best public service program.

Men enlisting for five years or the duration during the War of 1912 received bounties of $24 apiece.

The church's annual ice cream social starts at 6:30 p. m. and continues to the presentation of the Community Church Play School program scheduled for 7:30 p. m.

School Director Maybelle Ostberg said the program will feature dramatizations of scenes from the motion picture "The Inn of the Sixth Happiness."

Cast members include Dr. James

'Hire Veteran' Week Is Now Being Observed

"Hire a Veteran Week" in Riverside County Desert Area began Sunday by proclamation of Supervisor George Berkeley and will run through Saturday, May 9.

The week also is being commemorated throughout California, as proclaimed by Governor Edmund G. Brown.

During the period the Indio Local Office, California Department of Employment and the Coachella Valley Veterans Employment Committee is calling to the attention of employers that despite recent economic improvement there are still many veterans seeking work.

Richard Nelson, local office manager, and Silverio Tigg, a committee chairman, urged employers to place their job orders with the Department of Employment, where qualified veterans by law receive priority of referral to job openings.

"It's a good bet to hire a vet," is the slogan for "Hire a Veteran Week" and Treasurer Wally Miller, Coachella Valley Veterans Employment Committee, adds that "a veteran is always a good bet."

Classical Music Well Liked-Zam

Appears At High School

By GEORGE LAINE

When Maurice Zam strode on stage recently at Palm Springs High School, he could have easily been mistaken for a visiting Los Angeles Ram lineman.

But the heavily-manned, stockily-built Zam strode instead to a grand piano, seated himself and began to play a Mozart sonata.

AN HOUR LATER following heavy applause, the auditorium disgorged the high school student body, some of whom are still talking about Zam's display.

How Zam fed a diet of classical music to the students is an unusual but happy turn of events in a day that has seen rock and roll characterized as a sort of national music for American youth.

"It's not that difficult," Zam explained. "I used a logical approach that combined the known — rock and roll — with the unknown — classical music."

FOR MOST OF HIS adult life, Zam — who is a very adroit pianist — has been leading people along the path of musical righteousness.

He maintained for more than five years a position as the "voice of music for the West Coast from Los Angeles Station KECA before KFCF came into being. His intellectual orgies with such musical revolutionists as Schoenberg, Toch and Klemperer won him a ward after award on the station.

In fact, it was largely through the insistence of Zam that UCLA selected Arnold Schoenberg to head its school of music after Dr. Theodore Stearns left the school in the late 30's.

NOW EMBARKED ON a tour of American colleges and high schools that has already taken him into more than 135 such institutions, Zam doesn't buy the oft-repeated tale that the American public doesn't want classical music.

"Americans are simply tired of the snob system in music," he said. "Opera is a wonderful experience that is being enjoyed on records — by millions in this country."

"But the accented snobbery in force at actual performances has kept many people away from the opera hall."

PALM SPRINGS, to Zam, isn't a great deal different than any other community.

"I judge most communities by its young people," he said. "The youngsters in your high school auditorium were as receptive an audience as I've ever seen."

"In fact," he continued, "I'd go a step further. Palm Springs could provide the kind of audiences that would be loved and respected by musicians the world over.

"There's a reason for saying that," he added. "There's a cross-current of world greatness that courses through Palm Springs — mostly during the season — each year. This could be the community's greatest asset."

ZAM WAS THE subject of a recent Variety column by Frank Scully on the subject of the misplaying of Wagner's "Lohengrin" Wedding March.

Scully quoted Zam to the effect that the slow-moving tempo employed by most organists have turned the famous march into a dirge and "bowed up more lives than a third party at Tea for Two."

The pianist is also convinced of some other factors in music, namely:

—That people, because they are not properly prepared for it, spend $5 on a concert and reap about 10 cents worth of music.

—That the "star system" in music — which gave us Van Cliburn as the "world's greatest piano player" — is damaging the quality of music.

—THAT MUSICAL screwballs — "who know every inch of every Beethoven record but who have not really 'heard' one of his symphonies" — have created a "virtuoso listenership" that also hurts music.

—That a highly-articulate group of "musical morons" are now allowed to dictate the music tastes of America. If intelligent citizens wrote nearly as many letters as the "mass of the great unwashed" did, the caliber of radio and television fare would alter sharply, Zam believes.

"I COULD GO ON," Zam smiled, "but this isn't interesting. What is interesting is that so many people with so much knowledge of music could be so inarticulate in conveying to proper channels their desires in music."

"It is happening throughout the nation," he said. "People here, faced with this fact, must realize the alternatives they face. They may either become suddenly articulate about the kind of music they want. Or they must reconcile themselves to what they will most assuredly receive."

VETERAN NEWSMAN CARL BARRETT, SR., SUCCUMBS

A longtime Boston and Palm Springs newsmen — Carl Barrett, Sr. — died here yesterday after a lengthy illness. Barrett was 75.

A 17-year resident of the Palm Springs area, Barrett was at one time the owner and publisher of the Boston Record. He sold the publication to William Randolph Hearst in the late 20's.

BARRETT, A NATIVE New Englander, had started his career as a newsman on the Record after graduating from Connecticut's Norwich University with a degree in civil engineering. His first job on the Record paid him a $5 weekly salary.

While employed on the Record, Barrett also refereed fights and coached the Harvard University football team. He was appointed to be Massachusetts' first boxing commissioner by Calvin Coolidge, then governor of the state.

THE RECORD, owned jointly by Barrett's father and uncle, passed into the hands of Charles Sumner Bird following the deaths of the two Barretts. But Bird named the young journalist to the post of editor-in-chief just three months following the purchase.

Toastmistress Club Has Annual Spring Luncheon

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Three past presidents of the Desert Hot Springs Toastmistress Club were featured in last week's Spring Luncheon program.

Le Neve Read, Lola Hemingway and Marge Hanzel delivered five-minute speeches that were judged equal in all respects and duplicate awards were made to the three women.

Earlier in the program a one-minute speech won a cup for Enola Hulbert.

The club's regular meeting today was cancelled in order to allow all members of the Desert Hot Springs group to attend the luncheon of the Women's Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation in the Tennis Club at Palm Springs.

Barrett purchased the Record from Bird a few years later and built the organ into a formidable voice in New England before Hearst purchased it.

HE OPERATED a stock brokerage, headed executive sales for Electrolux for years and finally, in 1942, moved to Palm Springs. He purchased several parcels in the Tamarisk area but sold most of it and lived at 3989 Calle San Antonio up to the time of his death.

In Palm Springs, he was associated with both the Desert Magazine and the now-defunct Lime-light News.

Barrett is survived by his widow, Lotta; two sons, Carl, Jr., of Palm Springs and Bailey M. of Hartford, Conn., and by three grandchildren.

FUNERAL IS scheduled for 1 p.m., Friday, in Wiefels and Son Chapel here. Rev. James Barnhart, pastor of the St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will officiate at the ceremony. Interment is to follow at Montecito Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that friends and acquaintances contribute to the American Cancer Society campaign.

Test of Integrity

WASHINGTON, D. C. — You think you can tell by scanning the Congressional daily schedule what certain hearings and certain sessions will bring forth — but happily, sometimes you are wrong. The occasional unpredictability of the Congressional system is the proof of its integrity.

Senator Tom Hennings, chairman of the subcommittee on Constitutional Rights, had a star witness before his one-man group. The witness was the famous scientist and educator, Dr. Arthur H. Compton, a Nobel Prize winner, behind whose aristocratic visage and gleaming professional spectacles reposed tremendous brain power.

NOT ONLY WAS Dr. Compton a prestige witness, but he was from the chairman's State of Missouri, on the faculty of Washington University at St. Louis, and an old, valued friend. Dr. Compton had come to testify on secrecy in science, a favorite theme of the Democrats. They contend that the Eisenhower administration is too cross to understand higher learning, that it keeps its scientists in cages and fires any scholar who doesn't think like Lewis Strauss.

An experienced newsman would automatically assume that Dr. Compton had been brought on by Senator Hennings to hurl another broadside into the Eisenhower flank. To the astonishment of all, and to the seeming disappointment of the Senator, Dr. Compton quietly said that things were very good for scientific research these days. He had only minor suggestions to make. True, there had been some trouble a long while ago, in 1953. "All the difficulties have been alleviated considerably since my last recommendations," Dr. Compton reported.

CHIEF JUSTICE Charles Jones of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, was appearing before the Internal Security Subcommittee. Mr. Chief Justice Jones, a sedate but articulate gentleman with an old-fashioned mustache, is author of the 1954 opinion in the Steve Nelson case, later upheld in the U. S. Supreme Court.

The last two Congresses have been seething about the Nelson decisions. Both the ruling in Harrisburg and Washington said that the 40-state States which have sedition laws are out of line, that the Federal Government preempts the field. One of the Subcommittee members, Keating (R), of New York, has a bill at this session to rub out the Steve Nelson decisions.

TO THE ASTONISHMENT of all, especially of Keating, Mr. Chief Justice Jones said that his opinion had been partly based on a speech which Keating had made several years ago. He said he'd been so impressed by the Keating speech that he'd sent for a copy and had received it from Keating's office, then in the House of Representatives. Keating protested with good nature that he didn't want to feel he was "responsible for the Steve Nelson decision," which he opposed and was trying to rectify.

But the solemn old witness would not retreat. He had found "in Senator Keating's mind" an important part of his judicial reason for believing that the States did not belong in the field of sedition against the U. S. Government. At a Congressional session, and before a Senate Subcommittee, which are both complaining about Federal interference with the States, Mr. Chief Justice Jones stuck to his position.

tion that "there is too much interference from below with the Federal government."

THUS THE unexpected happens. The usual twist comes into play. The whole Congressional process, which often seems preordained, if not stage-managed, wheels off on an unpredicted tangent. It is like seeing the rookie pitcher strike out the big league slugger, or the long-odds racer nip the favorite at the wire. It is a testament to good faith in the institution.

By far the most salient example at this 1959 session occurred in the Senate's debate of the Labor bill. At first the Southern gleefully supported Senator McClellan's entire bill of rights. Among these "rights" for union members were some provisions which would deprive offending Labor leaders of trial by jury and allow them to be punished by injunction of the Labor Secretary. Nobody knows better than a Southern Senator that "rights" for some often means "wrongs" for others.

THE UPSHOT was that two brilliant and combative Southerners, Ervin (N.C.) and Thurmond (S.C.), called for a "second look" at the McClellan proposals. In the end the "wrongs" to Labor leaders were stricken from the "rights" of the members. Jury trial was assured even to Labor leaders, who, in the South, are as popular as crocodiles. What makes the Southern action an even grander performance is that it parallels an action by Western Senators on the Civil Rights act of 1957. Then it was the Western liberals, coming to the aid of the Southern conservatives, who insisted that trial-by-jury was the "right" even of Southern extremists.

Von Karajan Superb in 'Marriage of Figaro'

The marriage of Figaro (Highlights), W. A. Mozart, Elizabeth Schwarzkopf, Senta Jurina, soprano; Elisabeth Hogen, contralto; Erich Kunz, baritone; George London, bass-baritone; Marjan Russ, bass. Herbert von Karajan conducting the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra. Angel Records, $3.98.

Although I normally do not care to hear what some other person decides are "the highlights" of any opera, there is room for additional consideration when the product is as good as this on Karajan-led "Marriage of Figaro."

I imagine that the Angel division of the EMI-Capitol combine did not call this star-studded assemblage together to record highlights of the master's most light-hearted opera so it is probably safe to assume that Angel plans to release the complete opera. Hasten that day.

SINCE THE package will probably ring in at about $16-$20 in your neighborhood record store, you might want to avail yourself of this shortened presentation which, actually, only omits one segment of the opera—the Wedding Song (or March, as you will) — that I miss drastically.

On the other hand, there are several excellently rendered arias and duets in this single-record package. Included are:

—A perfectly beautifully reading of the most widely-done aria in this particular opera, the Dove song, by Schwarzkopf.

—A well-versed version of the sextet. Recognized in questo, which is probably going to become the definitive recording of this beautifully-wrought vocal selection.

THE VON KARAJAN baton continues to impress this reviewer.

Quotes from the News

WASHINGTON — Sir Winston Churchill on being welcomed to the United States by President Eisenhower:

"I am most happy once again to visit in the United States which is my mother's country and I always find and feel it is."

MIAMI, Fla. — Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, commander of the Army Ordnance Missile Command, on plans to fire a live animal into space within 60 days:

"We can progress only so far on the basis of theory and laboratory work. Then the issue has to be put to the proof."

LONDON — Engineer R. Bolton, complaining about the uniforms of British railwaymen: "The appearance of most railwaymen in their ill-fitting shapeless trousers and thick ungainly jackets is — let us face it — slatternly."

HEYWORTH, Ill. — Ronnie Bradley after standing on a river bank and watching his mother and father, three sisters and a brother down when their flat-bottomed boat capsized: "How would you feel if you were standing there and you couldn't do anything?"

CHICAGO — Mayor Richard J. Daley, on the arrival of an ocean-going freighter through the St. Lawrence Seaway, making Chicago a world seaport: "A great project has come to realization."

SALTOLM, Denmark — Edward Bergmann, a government

order that the inhabitants stop collecting rainwater for drinking purposes because of its radioactivity:

"I wouldn't be surprised if the whole thing wasn't a plot to make us drink more beer and liquor so the government would get more tax revenue."

AUSTIN, Tex. — Lt. Gen. Bernard Schriever, the Air Force ballistic missile chief, in announcing that the Atlas ICBM would be ready for operational use in July:

"I don't mean we'll have a squadron ready, but we'll have more than one."

NEW YORK — News commentator Lowell Thomas in announcing the start of a nationwide campaign for funds to aid Tibetan refugees:

"The plight of the refugees is critical. They have evaded Chinese attempts to seal the border and many of them are carrying their wounded. They need medical supplies urgently."

WASHINGTON — Lewis Strauss, newly appointed secretary of commerce, after being buffeted anew by opponents of his appointment:

"I believe the American people want something better from Washington than what appears to be a pattern of persecution through long-drawn-out attempts at defamation of a plain man who has done his best for his country over many years."

NEW YORK — Red-haired song writer Gloria Parker on why she walloped a woman stockholder at the RCA annual stockholders meeting:

"She called me a tramp."

LONDON — David J. Muir, agent for an Australian art gallery, who paid the record sum of $154,000 for a painting by Picasso at a London auction:

"When the bidding reached 30,000 pounds ($84,000) on the Picasso, I began to quiver. And when it mounted to 50,000 pounds ($140,000), I was really sweating. But I was determined to get it."

Another bit of realistic thinking came from Sacramento yesterday.

The Assembly Education Committee approved a bill to permit school teachers to spank unruly pupils.

However, the bill was amended to permit teachers to use "psychological methods" as an alternative.

That is, they should talk to the kids into being nice first and if that doesn't work, spank 'em.

I have known Tom Swanner, the blind man in the Post Office and his faithful dog Rufus, for over three years. Tom has a fine philosophy of life and he is always cheerful.

Tom is now in San Rafael, at the Guide School for Dogs and we all hope that he will become attached to the new dog, as he was to Pilot.

We'll be glad to see Tom at the Post Office again and carry on his usual way.

As most of us know, Pilot was bit by a rattlesnake. There are not many snakes on this desert, but just enough to be snake-conscious at all times, during the warm weather.

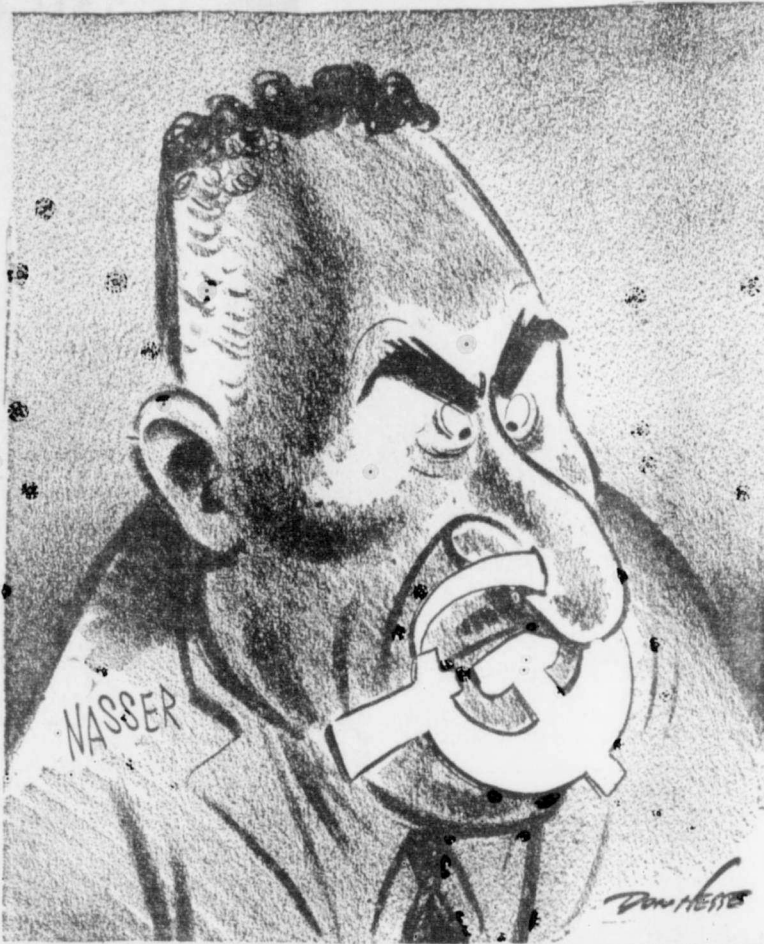

Tom has many good friends and we are all pulling for him.

Now—How To Get It Out?

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

No use watching the road behind you
For the guy who's in the white car.
He'll be sitting along the roadside,
You're only a blip on radar.

The state is getting realistic. The days when motorists can drive as they please as long as they are not caught, are passing. Now it's going to be easier to catch them.

CALIFORNIA is getting tough. Weary of being the leading state in the nation in traffic casualties, new legislation is piling up to make our highways safer.

The rights of motorists are still foremost but emphasis now is on the rights of all to be protected from the few who try to get away with anything they can. The state is cracking down and, who knows, but the day is coming when California won't be the leading state when highway traffic toll statistics are compiled.

LATEST MOVE in a series of laws to control traffic is the indication that the legislature will soon authorize use of radar on state highways to check speeders.

Many cities, including Palm Springs, employ radar but on state highways you still have to be caught by a traffic officer. Which means that many drivers zoom along with one eye on the road, the other watching the rear view mirror for a police car.

BUT SOON the state will authorize radar control of speed on all roads.

Gov. Brown has asked the legislature to approve such a law. Inspector Dan O'Connell of the CHP said that the knowledge that highway patrolmen are using radar will cause most motorists to slow down to the legal limit.

ANOTHER BIT of realistic thinking came from Sacramento yesterday.

The Assembly Education Committee approved a bill to permit school teachers to spank unruly pupils.

However, the bill was amended to permit teachers to use "psychological methods" as an alternative.

That is, they should talk to the kids into being nice first and if that doesn't work, spank 'em.

THE OTHER DAY, in writing about billboards along our highways and how out of date some of them were, I said:

"It was just the other day that a signboard urging all to vote for Pat Brown as governor, came down on Highway 99."

Which brought a communication the next morning: "Brother, are you blind! That Pat Brown billboard is still up there, between Cabazon and the Junction."

Perhaps they are thinking of a second term.

Then, there is that story about two women boarding one of these new jet liners. One approached the pilot.

"Now young man, don't travel faster than sound," she said. "We want to talk."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

If you wander off the road a little bit, you can find a cluster of houses on the Wyoming plains called South Pass City. Just south of here, the wagons for Oregon and California crossed the Continental Divide.

"I expected to find the South Pass a narrow passage or canyon," wrote my great-grandfather in 1850, "with high mountains on both sides and 40 miles through it and very difficult to drive a train of wagons through."

BUT IT IS comparatively level table land, with a lofty mountain many miles to the north called Fremont's Peak and no mountains in sight to the south."

All the journals of those days express surprise at the gentle lift in the land. Somehow it seemed to the Argonauts that the Divide ought to be more dramatic. When you started downhill to the Pacific, you should know it. And here the road was more level than any they had encountered.

"THE WATER FORMS from here to the Pacific and Atlantic oceans," grandpa wrote. "Near Pacific Springs the left-hand road goes by Salt Lake and the right-hand road goes by Soda Springs."

The right-hand road no longer exists. And you must turn south to Highway 30 again. Down to Fort Bridger on Black's Fork. The clutter of aspen and the little stream where Jim Bridger—Old Gabe, they called him—built a trading post in the 1840 period.

THIS WAS WHERE the Donner party split — the headstrong wouldn't listen to Jim; they headed right for the Salt Lake desert and wound up eating each other in the snows of the Sierra Nevada.

Matter of fact I came near eating a couple of gas station men myself. The food is that bad on our transcontinental highways.

I have carried all sorts of advice on cross-country trips: Duncan Hines, the AAA motoring guide, the Ford book on places to eat.

NO RAP AT THE people who wrote them — I think Duncan

Hines was a hero to even try it. The sad fact is that in the rich cattle country the steaks are frightful.

In a Nation that puts out 30 simple cook books a year, the keepers of restaurants have never been able to solve gravy or salad dressings outside of an add-water-and-serve bottle.

YOU TRAVEL NORTH again to pick up the gold rush road at Soda Springs.

"There was a Frenchman living with the Indians in the cedar grove by Soda Springs who had lived in that country 29 years," said grandpa. "We sold him three pints of sugar for $3."

It was a high price. But sugar was a luxury. I don't know what the Frenchman had been eating with the Indians during those 29 years. But if it was like it is today, he was probably desperate for a change.

GRANDPA WAS living on corn meal and what game they could get along the way. He spoke highly of prairie dogs which were thick in that part of the country.

"I killed 10 half-grown prairie dogs with a single barrel pistol at 11 shots and the other men killed 10 more. We dressed them and as we went into camp before night, I had them nicely stewed for a daylight supper, and a nicer stew I never tasted."

Montgomery said he would not eat dogs. But he looked at the rest of us eating them very wishful until there was but one left. And he said, "I am a mind to taste one."

"HE PUT A WEE morsel into his mouth, then a little more, until the little dog disappeared. He pronounced it very good, and he knows, for he was a splendid cook."

As for me, I went into a road-preaching the "The Best Food" and possibly it was. Possibly a fair claim of fact. But it seemed an awfully low point to brag about. The gravy, as usual, was bottled. And the dressing on the lettuce was that dismal orange paste that has swept the Nation to our everlasting shame.

Tells How to Duck Press

NEW YORK — I took beautiful Susan Cabot, King Hussein's Hollywood date, to El Morocco Toots Shor's and the Latin Quarter, where she told me how she ducked the New York press recently when the best reporters were looking for her. Very simply she got out of town — went right to Washington. "You didn't see him after you left Hollywood?" . . . "No!" insisted the Boston brunette. . . . "Would you like to see him again?" . . . Long, long pause. . . . "I think he has too many worries in his country, without getting involved with any one person. He's harassed on all sides, even by his neighbors. He's a very sensitive person and I respect him."

Susan, quite the prettiest girl around last night, told her escort (Marty Mills) and me that she aspires to do a musical and be on the Ed Sullivan TV show. She's also signed to do an Ellery Queen and "Pantomime Quiz" Show. What did she call Hussein when they dated? Well, formally, she called him "Your Majesty" — but she has a sense of humor — and the name she likes most in all the world is Sam. I hear she called him "Your Majesty, Sam."

Buddy Hackett, opening at the Latin Quarter, reported that dancing star Nicky Darvas (of Darvas and Julia) has made a fortune in the stock market: "If he doesn't happen to like you people, he can go out and rent a whole new audience." . . . Audrey Meadows was astonished, at "Masquerade Party" to find NBC executives manning cameras due to the strike. "First time," she said, "I ever saw cameramen with secretaries."

Kenny Delmar found an old letter from Fred Allen, written from Hollywood, saying, "All the sincerity in Hollywood you could stuff in a flea's navel and still have room left to conceal eight carry-away seeds and an agent's heart!" . . . Joe Doris notes that TV sponsors have a new slogan: "The show must go off."

"Marriage is a wonderful institution if you're ready for an institution" — Dorothy Shay. . . . Jack Carter claims to be getting up a telephone to raise money to stamp out telethons. . . . Henry Youngman (just booked for five more Ed Sullivan shows) defined high-fashion models: "All sweaters do for them is make them itch."

No Romance for Debbie

This column is being written by Mike Connolly's staff during his two-week vacation.

HOLLYWOOD — Don't believe all those rumors linking Debbie Reynolds with every available young actor in Hollywood. Debbie is not likely to put herself in the position of getting burned again. Sure, she dates but usually with six or even eight in the party. Like last night, Debbie was with Ben Cooper and other Thalian members at Schwabs and they all asked for separate checks!

In Hollywood, there is always someone trying to make something out of nothing. So remember you read it here — at present, Debbie's working schedule is much too full to include romantic attachments.

FOR ALL YOU Presley fans, you'll be glad to know that Elvis will be coming back to Hollywood in orbit like the Thor-Able missile. Hal Wallis has signed him for four more movies at one-a-year and giving Elvis a percentage of the first one. This is a re-written contract by Wallis who discovered Swivel Hips in the first place. And to top that, Kubrick Tom Parker set a two-picture contract at Fox which will give a fat chunk percentage-wise to the rock-n-roller.

Now that Frank Sinatra has made his splash coming to his co-star Gina Lollobrigida in Las Vegas' Sands Hotel, he left his singing engagement three days early so he can rest up in Palm Springs before he and Gina start work next Monday on the movie, "Secret and Profane." This is the new title for "Never So Few." Now maybe Metro can get Gina out of all those tailored suits mentioned in this column two days ago — the title change will make it easier.

Marketing Meet For Grapefruit Growers Set

A meeting for the purpose of nominating members and alternates to the Grapefruit Administration Committee of the Federal Marketing Agreement and Order Program, will be held in Coachella, it was announced this week by the Fruit and Vegetable Division, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The meeting is scheduled for 2 p.m., May 14, at the Coachella Valley County Water District Auditorium.

Another meeting will be held at 8 p.m., May 13, at the Agricultural Commissioner's office in the court house building at El Centro.

U. S. production of acetylsalicylic acid (better known as aspirin) reached an all-time high of 20 million pounds in 1958, according to the U.S. Department of Commerce. That's about 28 billion tablets.

PAINT COMPANY OFFICIALS VISIT STORE THEY STARTED

The Palm Springs branch of the Sherwin-Williams Paint Company this week played host to two men who played an important part in starting the local store.

In Palm Springs on an unofficial visit were Luther H. Schroeder, Cleveland, financial officer of SWP for the past 31 years, and Ed Housekeeper, vice president and general manager of SWP of California.

BOTH MEN HIGHLY praised Earl Dodd, manager of the local branch, who has shown the main office that "a branch in Palm Springs was a very good move."

Anza Electric Cooperative Aid Approved

ANZA — Federal assistance to the tune of $124,000 has been approved by the U.S. Rural Electrification Administration for installation of an 18-mile distribution line by the Anza Electric Cooperative.

Arthur H. Nightingale, president of the Anza utility, had been advised that the REA has approved his application for the aid.

The Anza Electric Cooperative serves 115 new customers through a general improvements system that touches portions of both Riverside and San Diego counties.

Since the store's start a year ago, the operation has been consistently in the black, and is recorded as one of the very few of the total of 1,305 branch stores throughout the country that has such a record.

SCHROEDER has been a visitor to Palm Springs for some 15 years, having stayed on his first visit here at the Desert Inn.

He was the one man who believed that a local store in Palm Springs would be an asset to the company, and for several years argued with the main office to get one started. In a very short time, Schroeder got Housekeeper on his side, and the two men worked on the heads of the firm to have the local store.

"It took us several years to show them that it would be profitable to have a Palm Springs store," said Schroeder, "but now that they have established one, they are realizing a good profit from it."

HE EXPLAINED that the 1,305 branches throughout the U.S. have grown in a net worth of $8 million in 1958 to $168 million in 1958.

Housekeeper, who is Dodd's immediate superior, has been with the company for 37 years and is ahead of all sales operations on the Pacific Coast.

BOTH MEN agreed that Dodd was in the enviable position of handling "the finest clientele" and pointed out that this area, unlike stores in heavy manufacturing areas, must depend entirely on construction and private purchases.

Still, the company magazine reports that Dodd is ninth largest in sales in the entire United States. Dodd has lived in Palm Springs for eight years, and has been in the paint or lumber business since 1936.

Board Frowns On Salary Check

The Riverside County Employees Association requested the Board of Supervisors this week to have Personnel Director Donald Spencer make a general salary survey in this and neighboring counties, and also a separate survey in the desert areas of Indio and Blythe.

Clyde Storde, president of the association and James A. Williams, chairman of the association's salary committee, said that in spite of recent salary increases approved on the basis of comparison with those in Orange and San Bernardino counties, there are many employees in this county receiving a rate of pay lower than those of the other two counties.

THEY ASKED that the general survey be based on comparison of salaries paid employees in private businesses and in public agencies for similar positions.

The proposed survey of salaries in the desert area was requested on the basis of individual problems there, such as the difference in cost of living, weather conditions and travel and housing problems.

THE SUPERVISORS instructed Spencer to study and report to them on the time such surveys would take, and the cost, but only after a discussion during which Supervisor Fred McCall remarked,

"I've no discussion during which Supervisor Fred McCall remarked, 'I've no objection to a study, but I don't think the employees can expect more raises this year,' and Supervisor William Jones agreed with him."

It was a remark by Supervisor Paul Anderson that if the board felt they could not approve more salary raises for the fiscal year, which commences July 1, they shouldn't waste the time of the personnel director on a survey, that led to the request for a report on the time and costs involved.

Said Supervisor George Berkeley, "A survey would allow the personnel director to keep in touch with salary conditions."

Harry Grimms Leaving for Honolulu

The G. Harry Grimms of 233 San Jacinto Drive, will say "So Long, Podner" to their many friends in Palm Springs and "Aloha nui kokoo" to their friends in Honolulu when they fly Pan American on Saturday to "The loveliest fleet of islands that lies anchored in any ocean," to their new home on Prince Edward Street, Waikiki, Honolulu, Hawaii.

The Grimms, who have called the Village home for the past 13 years, are the new owners and publishers of "The Traveler's Guide to Honolulu" that dependable, "known the world over" bright red brochure which is a must for Malihini and Kaamaina alike, distributed free of charge and found in all leading hotels in the Islands. Most of the needs of the traveler can be found in the announcements of leading business firms in the pages of this "Where To Go — What To See — How To Get There" publication. The Traveler's Guide to Honolulu is in its 40th year of publication, having been established as copyrighted in 1919 by Harry Grimm. A few years later he started a new publication — The Army-Navy Review, a medium of communication between the Armed Forces and the merchants of Honolulu, and turned "The Guide" over to his brother Fred, who published the brochure until his recent death. The Army-Navy Review was sold in 1942, and Grimm left Honolulu to enter the advertising business in Long Beach and join his family who were evacuated from the Islands during World War II.

The Grimms will be joined by their son, Fred Clark Grimm, who was born in Honolulu and who has gone through the Palm Springs schools from kindergarten through high school. In June he will finish his first year at Whitworth College in Spokane, Washington, where he will return in the fall. Fred will assist his father this summer in the publishing of "The Guide" when he isn't engaged in his favorite sports — fishing and tennis (he made the college tennis team this year).

Mrs. Grimm is no "malihini" to the Islands having been a member of the faculty of Mid-Pacific Institute of Honolulu "a Christian prep-school for the University and established many, many years ago by the missionaries of the Islands", and editorial secretary of The Honolulu Star-Bulletin, when living in the Islands. During the past winter Mrs. Grimm has been publicity chairman of the Palm Springs Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation of Desert Hot Springs.

The Grimms will maintain their home in Palm Springs and Mrs. Grimm plans to return for the beginning of the season and to be on hand at the "old corral" as she calls her pink hacienda on San Jacinto Drive to greet her houseguests from Canada, who return year after year to enjoy all the "goodies" that the Village has to offer.

Bathrooms

Attractive, comfortable bathrooms rank high on the list of advantages desired by homeowners. Bathrooms also receive more attention from people planning to build or buy than any other room, except the kitchen.

Closing Party on Mother's Day

Seems only a short time ago the beautiful Tennis Club held its formal opening back in mid-November, and now it's come time to bid all the members and their guests farewell for this season.

With such a beautiful outdoor setting in the gardens of the lovely Tennis Club, it has been decided to hold the closing party around the pool on Sunday, May 10th. It will not only be a closing party, but also will honor Mother's Day as the theme.

Many are making up parties for the all fresco dinner, which will be a steak fry. The smartly lighted gardens will be enhanced by colorful decorations in the trees and around the pool area.

Among those planning parties are: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland who will head a no-host table of 10. Also making reservations are: Messrs. and Mmes. Lawrence Cooper, William Malouf, George Irvin, Jerry Sanborn, W. G. Stoddard, Ray Gould, George Anderson, and others.

Members are urged to call in their reservations immediately to the Club, FA 4-1441.

Bridge Luncheon Takes Motif from Greek Easter Monday

Delightful and different was the bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Vera Jones of Pablo Drive on Monday of this week. It was a beautiful party celebrating the Easter Monday of the Greek Orthodox Church according to the Greek Calendar.

The long buffet table covered with a lace cloth was laden with dishes made according to the ritual of the Old Church. The Holy Bread, called Koulach, made in a round tower effect was the centerpiece, decorated with an unusual napkin effect made from sugar and draped over the bread. Fresh flowers pressed into the sugar gave it a festive look. Below the stand and surrounding it were Easter Eggs, rabbits, and white orchids in a nest of green ferns. Two pyramids, called Paskas, one green, one pink, were on either side of the center. These proved to be a part of the dessert and were made of a cheese mixture, a special recipe of the hostess. Other unusual dishes on the luncheon menu were Pecorini meat pie, Polish Bigos, Krakov sausage, cold ham, Salad Fortinari, Coquillas St. Jacques, a French soufflé.

After the guests were served and seated at small tables, the hostess distributed colored Easter Eggs containing fortunes.

Among the five desserts prepared by Mrs. Jones and her friend and house guest, Mrs. Henrietta Usatan from Beverly Hills, were: Strawberry Delight, Cheese pyramids, Piraz cake, and delicious crepe suzettes. Each guest was served a portion of all desserts as well as café noir.

The luncheon was followed by an afternoon of bridge. Two Easter gifts were drawn by use of famous name couples.

Guests were: Mrs. Catherine Gentry, Mrs. William Patterson, Judy Bongers, Ruth Alday, Helen Sumpter, Mrs. Edith Holloway, Anne O'Dell, Mrs. Helen Kotsifas, Vera Farrell, Bert Turner, Mrs. Phil Carlson, Ruth Passow, and Mrs. Usatan.

BY IMPERIAL DECREE...decisive differences

Whichever of the fine cars you now drive... whatever the reasons for its purchase... you should know some of the decisive differences that are turning fine car buyers, in increasing numbers, to Imperial.

Example: The riding quality of Torsion-Air... a suspension as yet unequalled by soft coils or complex air systems. No Imperial owner would give it up.

Example: A precisely honed sense of handling and maneuver no other car has quite been able to achieve. Other fine cars often feel sluggish to Imperial owners.

Example: Broader, higher doors; longer room for legs; higher space above heads. Swivel seats for dignified entry and exit. Imperial owners feel a little cramped in other fine cars.

Example: A totally new kind of engine that gives Imperial more wheel-turning force, more liveliness per pound than any other engine in the fine car world. Example: Auto-Pilot which tends the accelerator automatically on long trips... an option many Imperial owners consider a necessity.

These are not available on any other fine car. They are important differences... the kind you can test and evaluate. Do so. See your Imperial dealer. Drive the Imperial he has for you. Compare it in any way with its rival cars. You'll understand why Imperial is the sales success of the year.

NO PANIC BUTTON

Still Long Time Until the Finish

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — There is an old story concerning what happened to the men who owned a stable of Thoroughbreds and a stable of harness horses which were cleaning up until suddenly he lost everything.
"It's simple," he explained. "The runners started trotting and the trotters started running. So I went broke."
It's that simple, too, with the New York Yankees.
"The pitchers suddenly ain't pitching and the hitters ain't hitting," moans Manager Casey Stengel.

BUT NO MATTER what you hear, the wrinkled warrior isn't pressing the panic button and he isn't in danger of being fired at a Bill Norman at Detroit. It was Norman's sage and sad rebuttal that "managers are hired to be fired" but not so with the man who has led the Yankees to nine pennants and seven world championships in 10 years.
Only since the Norman dismissal has the current sad plight of the Yankees come into focus. Before that, the Detroit downfall took precedence but, with that matter cleaned up, all eyes are now trained on the Yankees. Actually, the Yankee plight was even worse all along. They were expected to be winners. Detroit only was given an overall vote of confidence to make the best run at the world champions.

THE STANDING of the club in the strange atmosphere of the lower strata of the second division is evident in old Casey's attitude. He is all sweetness and light.

This, the Yankees will confide, is ever the way when things are going bad. At such times, Stengel is most solicitous of his heroes, in a kindly manner attempting to rebuild their trembling egos. It is only when they are "hot" that he lashes out with the whip. Then he applies the old backroom philosophy of "you've got 'em down, kick 'em."

Stengel naturally is worried and, as he does while winning or losing, spends his nights plotting and scheming for victory.

THERE IS A GREAT deal of lip licking and chortling around the league as result of the poor Yankee start. There have been all kinds of analysis, all jubilant, as to what has happened. The veterans have been labeled "long over the hill" and the younger members "overrated." The league overall undoubtedly is stronger but impartial observers still contend in the face of current adversity that the Yanks are all alone in the first division on potential.

Salih Predicts 3rd Win for His Car
WHITTIER (UPI) — George Salih, designer-builder of the winning car of the 1957 and '58 Indianapolis 500-mile races, predicted today a third victory this year for the sleek racer—first ever to have its engine lying off its side.

Tribe and Hemet Clash Tomorrow At Polo Grounds

Palm Springs High School Indians face another "crucial" tomorrow afternoon when they host Hemet High at the Polo Grounds starting at 4:30.

A win tomorrow will clinch at least a tie for the Tribe and put them two games ahead of their nearest rivals with two games to go.

A LOSS WILL LEAVE them at the head of the Riverside County League but only a half game ahead, putting the pressure on them for the final two games next week.

In the first round, Hemet tromped on the Indians 10 to 1, handing them one of their two losses of the season. It was an off day for the Tribe and they broke wide open in the fifth inning to allow Hemet to score seven times. The game was played at Hemet.

COACH GEORGE SCHOLL will start Leroy Segundo against the Bulldogs. Segundo is out for revenge for that loss at Hemet in the first round is the only one charged against him.

In other games tomorrow San Jacinto (7-4) meets Banning, (0-11); Elsinore (4-7) plays Coachella (7-4) and Beaumont, (6-4) meets Perris, (3-8).

Hollypark Opens 20th Meeting Tomorrow

Hollywood Park, which has led all U. S. race tracks in attendance for seven of the past eight years, today was prepared to defend its national popularity championship with another top 55-day meeting featuring what appears to be the greatest collection of fleet thoroughbreds in the track's 20-year history.

The "track of the lakes and flowers" will open tomorrow, first post at 1:45 p. m., with two features—the six-furlong Hollywood Premiere Handicap, which has drawn some of the nation's fleetest sprinters, and the Roy Campanella Purse, another dash with a strong field in which the Los Angeles Dodgers' popular "Campy" will crown the winner.

HEADED BY TOMMY LEE, fresh from his smashing Kentucky Derby victory, and a large band of other winners of $100,000 classics throughout the country, the thoroughbred colony at Hollywood Park may well be the strongest ever assembled for one race meeting.

The Hollywood Premiere will bring out the finest band of dash stars ever assembled at Hollypark, including such talented handicappers as Royal Living, Terrang, Seaneen, How Now and Fleet Nasrullah.

MAKING HIS WESTERN bow will be Fred Hooper's Alhambra, one of several eastern-owned standouts which have bolstered the equine ranks. Another, Mrs. Tilyou Christopher's Amerigo, will be seen later in the meet as he aims for the $100,000 added California May 16 and the $162,000 Hollywood Gold Cup July 11.

Tommy Lee tops a cast of three-year-olds rarely equaled at any track. Royal Orbit, Finnegan and Silver Spoon, the Santa Anita Derby champ, all will soon be racing at Hollywood Park after their strong showing in the Kentucky Derby.

THE $25,000 ADDED Debonair Stakes on Saturday will bring out

Casper Defeats Player in All Star Golf Tournament

Cards 72 To Win by 4 Strokes

Billy Casper, Chula Vista, who registers from the Apple Valley Country Club, fired a 72 yesterday at Bermuda Dunes Country Club to win the second in the ABC-TV All Star Golf Series for 1959, from Gary Player, South African pro who had defeated Sam Snead at Eldorado Country Club Tuesday.

Player's game slumped from the day before and he picked up three bogeys on each nine to card a four-over-par 38-38-76.

CASPER ALMOST scored a hole in one on the par-three fourth hole when his tee shot rolled an inch outside of the pin and stopped 15 feet beyond.

That hole-in-one would have been worth a $10,000 bonus.

The Californian played a steady game scoring two birdies, the first and 13th.

Player seemed baffled by the large and rolling greens of Bermuda Dunes and he three-putted three of them.

IN THE 1958 All Star golf series Casper won six times and dragged down $12,000.

Today Casper meets Ed Oliver of Wilmington, Del., in the third of the TV series at Eldorado Country Club.

Fourth in the series will be played Friday at Bermuda Dunes with Al Balding meeting the winner of today's Casper - Oliver duel.

Yesterday's scores:
Casper out ..... 344 344 354-38
Player out ..... 445 445 354-38

Player out ..... 454 454 354-38-76

Casper: 2 birdies, 2 bogies, 14 pars;

Record Crowd to Watch Yanks and Dodgers Tonight

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The largest crowd in baseball history, at least 90,000 persons, was expected tonight for an exhibition game between the Yankees and Dodgers, but they'll pack them in at the Coliseum principally to pay tribute to Roy Campanella.

Campanella night is a benefit for the injured catcher, formerly the National League's most valuable player and one of the most popular players in either league.

The contest also marks the in-season West Coast debut of the world's champion Yankees.

Mgr. Casey Stengel said his star, Mickey Mantel, and relief ace Ryne Duren would come here for the game although they and three other members of the team were stricken with flu earlier this week.

It was a busy day for the Dodgers, beaten 5 to 4 Wednesday by Milwaukee, who fly here tonight from San Francisco after a regular league game with the Giants.

All reserved and box seats, some $2,000 were sold by this morning. At 6 p. m. tonight, another 10,000 distant "bleacher" seats go on sale at 90 cents each.

The all time record for a major league game is 96,238, for the fifth game of the 1946 World Series between the Braves and Indians in Cleveland.

All pass lists were suspended for tonight, including those for working baseball writers.

Terrang to Pack 124 Tomorrow in Premiere 'Cap'

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Terrang, winner of the 1959 Santa Anita Handicap, will tote 120 pounds—top weight—for Friday's $20,000-added Hollywood Premier Handicap, opening feature of the Hollywood Park summer meeting.

Alhambra, the eastern invader which will have Jockey Bill Shoemaker aboard, will carry 123 pounds, and How Now enters the six-furlong race with 122 pounds.

Another highlight of the opening day program will be the $7,500 Roy Campanella Purse, in which Silky Sullivan is entered.

SIGN TWO TACKLES
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Philadelphia Eagles have signed defensive tackle Down Owens and Jess Richardson to 1959 pro football contracts.

No Golf Clinics Next Saturday

There will be no golf clinic Saturday at Palm Springs Golf Club course as Dale Anderson, the instructor, is in Santa Maria to participate in the California Open Golf tournament.

The classes will come to an end Saturday, May 16, when prizes will be awarded.

Snead, Demaret Answer USGA Gambling Charge

Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret, here with the All Star Golf Series at Eldorado and Bermuda Dunes Country Clubs, told the United Press International that the U. S. Golf association should clean itself up first before attacking the pro golf circuit for "gambling."

Joe Dey, executive secretary of the USGA, recently launched an attack on Calcuttas, operated in conjunction with big tournaments. His blast followed the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions Calcutta where $380,000 was in the pool.

Snead said that USGA officials themselves were not above gambling on the golf course and "gambling good."

"Many of the top-ranking well-to-do amateurs also play for large sums per round," he added, saying that he knew at least four USGA executives who played for big money.

Shoemaker to Try for Jockey "Triple Crown"

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Jockey Willie Shoemaker says he is glad for the chance to win horse racing's "Triple Crown" by signing to ride Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer in the May 16 Preakness.

Shoemaker returned home here for his engagements at Hollywood Park following his victory aboard Tony Lee last Saturday in the Kentucky Derby.

The jockey said he would ride at Hollywood Park until May 15, then fly to Maryland for the Preakness. He will return here after that race and go east again in June to ride Sword Dancer in the Belmont Stakes—third leg of the Triple.

Tommy Lee will not compete in the Preakness or Belmont but if Shoemaker wins on Sword Dancer it would be a jockey's "Triple Crown."

209 Golfers Tee Off in California Open Tournament

SANTA MARIA (UPI) — A field of 209 golfers tee off today in the start of the 72-hole California Open.

Among the favorites to cop the tourney were former PGA champion Jim Ferrier, former National Open champ Jack Fleck, three-time state open champ Eric Monti and Smiley Quick, Zel Eaton and Art Bell.

In the two-day pro-amateur concluded Wednesday, Charles Sifford of Los Angeles carded a five-under par 67 to tie with Ventura, Tony Lazane for low pro honors.

Other low scores in the pro-amateur included: Larry Montes, Colma; Don Smullen, Fresno; Babe Lazane, Bakersfield, and Jack Mann, Los Angeles, all with 69s.

HOGAN FADE IS NO MORE

But Bantam Ben Still King Says Demaret

By HAL WOOD
United Press International
The fabled "Hogan Fade," which had golfers all over the world changing their stance, grip and swing a few years ago, is a thing of the past.

But bantam Ben Hogan still is the king of the golfers.

Take the word of fellow Texan, Jimmy James Demaret: Hogan still is the best golfer in the world.

"I played with Ben the other day," said Jimmy, who is in Palm Springs to act as commentator in the all-star golf TV series (ABC). "He's hitting the ball 20 yards farther than he ever hit it in his life."

Demaret claims that the "Hogan Fade" is no more.

"BEN NOW HAS just a trace of a hook. And that accounts for the fact that he is outdriving many of the other professionals by 20 yards these days," said Demaret.

Hogan, to prove his ability in advancing age, won the recent Colonial Invitational as he bested Fred Hawkins in a playoff.

Demaret may be prejudiced on Hogan's ability, because he and Bantam Ben started on the tour about the same time more than two decades ago. Jimmy has won

Two-Year Study

Wage Bill Delay Praised by Yost

INDIO — Wisdom of the California legislature in delaying action for at least two years on a bill that would have set a minimum wage — the first in history — for farm labor, was praised today by Col. Leland Yost, manager of the Coachella Valley Farmers Association.

Legislatures recently referred to a committee for a two-year study the governor's minimum wage measure which would have set $1.25 as the lowest pay in industry and business, and 90 cents in agriculture.

"THE ISSUE IS NOT that agriculture wishes to keep down wages below 90 cents an hour — most farm laborers now are receiving more than that in all parts of California," the farm organization leader explained.

"Most of California farm jobs now are on the piece-rate basis, and the fixing of a minimum hourly wage would have acted to actually reduce the number of jobs. If a farmer must guarantee a worker a minimum of 90 cents an hour regardless of whether he earns it, then he naturally will hire only the fastest and most efficient workers. This threatens the door to young people, elderly workers and others who might wish to set their own pace under piece-work operations," he said.

THE DATE HARVEST in the Coachella Valley recently is a good case in point, Yost said. Speediest workers earned $2.54 an hour over a 12-day period, and yet the crew average was $1.12 for men to earn as high as the $2.54 an hour and yet many received less than the average.

Setting of minimum hourly wages in agriculture also will hasten mechanization in farm operations, he predicted, disclosing that a major share of the cotton harvesting in the Coachella Valley probably will be done by machines this year.

"THUS WE THINK we are helping farm workers by legislative action whereas we actually hurt their chances for job opportunities," he said.

Workers employed in the citrus areas of Southern California are earning above $1 an hour, recent reports from farm labor organizations have revealed. "Prevailing wage rates" are a controlling factor in computing piece work scheduled throughout California.

It was the astronomer Galileo who discovered the principle of the pendulum and suggested its application for measuring time.

Godfrey Bounces Back Following Cancer Surgery

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Arthur Godfrey, 55, is bouncing back from his cancer operation today with nothing but favorable reports for his complete recovery.

"There have been no setbacks or complications," a hospital bulletin said today.

Godfrey Bounces Back Following Cancer Surgery

12-Point Anti-Burglar Program Set by Police

THIS WELCOMING COMMITTEE of Palm Springs Real Estate Board members turned out to greet visiting "fireman" James Udall, right, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards when Udall was a guest of the local group at a special Racquet Club luncheon. On hand to welcome the distinguished visitor were, left to right, James Hammond, Palm Springs board president; John

Munholland, past president of the California Real Estate Association; Herb Lakey, also a CREA past president, and Mayor Frank Bogert. Udall lunched with Palm Springs board directors and offered an informal discussion of NAREB activities in Washington, D.C. (Anderson Photo)

To Aid Home Owners

In observance of Burglary Prevention Week here this week, Police Chief August Kettmann has prepared this 12-point policy for Village home owners planning to vacate their homes.

It's an "insurance policy" designed to help protect home owners against burglars, whether they vacate their house for a day, week end or an entire season.

CHIEF KETTMAN'S anti-burglary program, designed to aid home owners in a "battle of wits" against house-breakers, is as follows:

1. Close and lock all windows and doors, including basement, porch and garage. Use pin tumbler cylinder locks on all outside doors.
2. Leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home look "lived-in," and is a good protective measure.
3. If you are going away for a weekend or a vacation, notify local police officers as to the date you're leaving and the date on which you will return.

4. HAVE THE POST office stop mail deliveries to your home while you're away, and make certain that no store deliveries will arrive during your absence.
5. Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation of milk bottles and newspapers is a sure sign that you're not home.

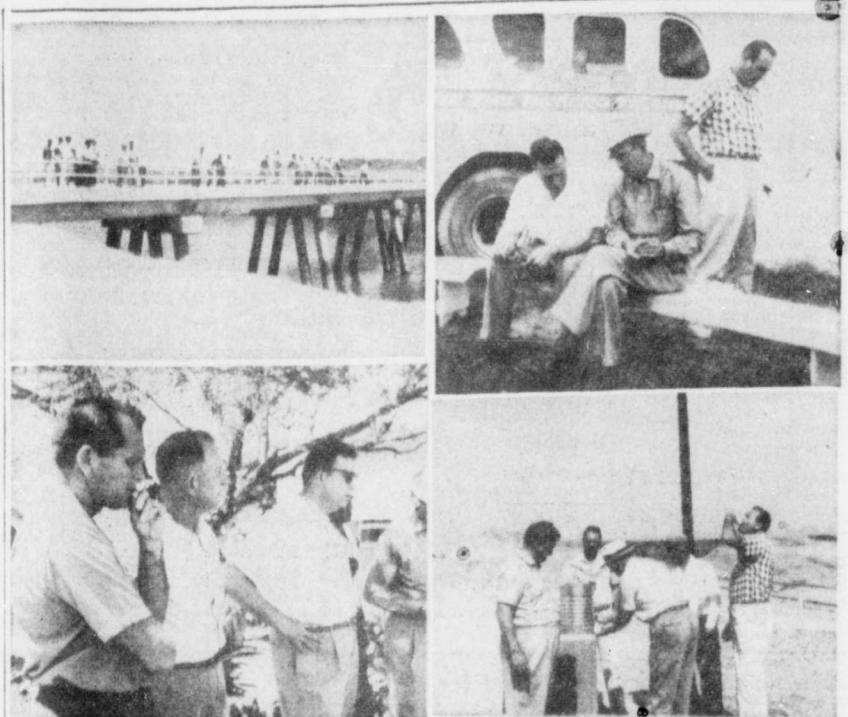

6. If you are on vacation, have your lawn mowed and your sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.
7. HAVE YOUR PHONE disconnected, if you're going away. Burglars will sometimes call to see if someone is home.

8. Tell one neighbor if you are leaving. Have him notify police if he sees anyone prowling around.
9. Do not close shades or blinds completely. Leave them as you normally would when you are home.

11. NEVER LEAVE ladders and tools where children can get at them. To do so is equivalent to giving the thief a key to your front door.
12. Close your garage doors. An empty garage with the door open is a good sign that no one's home.

12. Do not tell friends, neighbors or work associates of the valuable possessions you have around your house. In fact, never leave valuables around the house. Place them in a safety deposit box.

MOST IMPORTANT of all, Kettmann pointed out — "Use your head and save your property." "Start practicing these rules during Burglary Prevention Week and make them a life-long habit," he suggested.

STRATEGIC DESERT WATERWAYS were studied by 39 leading businessmen, farmers and civic representatives from Coachella Valley communities in a tour of Imperial Dam, the valley's All-American Canal branch, Pilot Knob and other areas, hosted by the Coachella Valley County Water District. Traveling by bus, the group covered 300 miles, pausing at such spots as the top of Imperial Dam (upper left photo) for a panoramic view of the waterworks. Lunchtime featured a roadside picnic and inspection of the irrigation water supply engineering system, a topic for discussion by Doyle Boen, Ted Crane and Maurice Sherrill (upper right photo). Listening to a lecture on a vast desert irrigation system (lower left photo) are Jimmy Cooper, Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce manager, Lowell Weeks, water district manager, and Maurice Sherrill, while another group of touring businessmen, including Palm Desert Realtor Ted Smith, left, take a water break (lower right photo) before resuming their eight-hour journey. ## HEARING PLANNED ON HOSPITAL USE Congressman D. S. Saund today reported that he has secured a congressional committee hearing on the proposed disposal of the Corona Naval Hospital.

Acting on Saund's request, the House Armed Services Subcommittee on Real Estate and Construction has set aside action on the Navy's request to dispose of the hospital.

THE SUBCOMMITTEE agreed to hold a hearing in Washington in the near future, Saund reported.

Meanwhile, the representative from the 20th Congressional District urged interested individuals and groups to gather information and delegate representatives to attend the hearing.

The hospital has been the subject of a two-year tug-of-war between the Navy, which wants to close the facility, and area civic leaders, who wish to keep it open.

SAUND particularly sought support in the hearing from Corona Mayor C. A. Jameson, the Corona Chamber of Commerce, the Corona Daily Independent, the Riverside Chamber of Commerce, Military Affairs Committee, and others.

"I requested the Riverside County hearing representatives to arm themselves with abundant facts in support of retaining Corona Naval Hospital in its vital role as a medical facility for thousands of Southern California servicemen and their families," Saund said.

He said that hearing resulted from a "strong appeal" to Chairman Philip J. Philipin, of Massachusetts and his subcommittee colleagues.

Saund added that he will announce the date of the hearing "as soon as it is available."

Enjoying the afternoon's activities were teachers Mike Arsulich and Larry Foster.

Better Dog House

NEW YORK (UPI) — For your dog's "air-conditioned" comfort, the Committee on Galvanized Steel Sheet Research suggests a dog house with both ends open and a galvanized steel roof to reflect the sunlight.

Britain Admits H-Bomb Stockpile

LONDON — UPI — The British Defense Ministry today confirmed U. S. press reports that American hydrogen bombs have been loaned to British Royal Air Force bomber units.

The bombs are under American guard at supply dumps in Britain, a spokesman said. In the event of war, a proportion of the hydrogen bombs needed by the RAF bomber fleet would have to come from this source, he added.

HOW TO STOP WASTE

Water in California is a precious commodity... and although Palm Springs has an abundant supply, it should not be wasted... wasted drops of water make a high water bill...

A leak in your house means you're paying for water nobody benefits from... the cost to supply "water to waste" is paid for eventually by all the consumers... so PALM SPRINGS WATER COMPANY urges you to make periodic checks of all plumbing fixtures... check all faucets... washbowls... toilets... cooler... every spot where water may escape.

And if anything appears wrong, be sure to fix it PROPERLY... inexperienced "fixers" often cause heavier expense in the long run.

We are always ready to advise and help you in preventing water waste and reducing your water bill.
